THANKFULLY DEDICATE THIS, OUR 1963
"PIONEER".

ADMINISTRATION

GRADUATES,

Your hard work has won you your high school diploma. Congratulations!

There are many more objectives of education that are command assignments. In short the aim of modern education is to produce mature, competent, conscientious, and loyal citizens. Illiterate, inadequate, unethical citizens are liabilities. The most dangerous people in the United States are those whose powers of influences are adult, but whose motives and responses are infantile.

May success and happiness come to each of you, but remember, these are accomplished only by continued hard work.

Sincerely,

Bernard D. Hughes
